Creating Diverse Communities: Religion and Power

Kathy Castania
Opening Doors Diversity Project

Workshop Objectives

- To develop a common language for talking about power, privilege and difference.
- To examine the impact of Christian hegemony on social, political, and economic power in the U.S.
- To develop a vision for what spiritual diversity within a community would require.
- To collectively develop strategies for increasing spiritual acceptance and religious equity on campus.

Working Agreements:

- Confidentiality
- Listen for understanding
- Respect for others and multiple perspectives
- Open, honest dialogue with no repercussions

What Dominator Model dynamics are preventing movement to partnership?

Based on your personal experience as a Christian (dominant) or Other Spiritual Beliefs (excluded) identify what gets in the way of creating partnerships that can lead to healthy diverse religious communities?

Overcoming Dominator Model Barriers:

Using the list of Dominator Model barriers, identify strategies for overcoming them within society and within your spiritual community.

CLOSING:

You are invited to share an appreciation for a thought, an idea, yourself or another participant.
