INTERDISCIPLINARY ACTIVITY/PROGRAM PLANNING

- WHEREAS significant educational benefits to all members of the College Community could result from increased interdisciplinary program-planning and cooperation (e.g. joint celebration by the English and Theatre Departments of the centennial of Eugene O'Neill's birth this Fall), and
- WHEREAS no central agency exists at the College to coordinate such interdisciplinary cooperative efforts, therefore be it
- RESOLVED that a mechanism, procedure, and agency be developed and staffed to assist with joint planning and implementation of interdisciplinary activities and programs, and be it further
- RESOLVED that a database of the various talents on campus be developed for the purpose of assisting with the planning of such interdisciplinary activities and programs, and be it further
- RESOLVED that a communications channel be developed to assist with such planning and to inform the College community of such activities and programs.
