Special Resolution for Interim President John Clark

Whereas

Dr. John Clark has most ably served the State University of New York College at Brockport as its Interim President since June 2004; and

Whereas

Dr. Clark has provided skillful and conscientious leadership through a host of complex issues in representing SUNY College at Brockport, both with internal and external constituents; and

Whereas

Under his leadership the College has made significant progress towards securing local, state-wide, and national support for several projects including the Lake Ontario Research Project, the Rochester Educational Opportunity Center and the Special Events Recreation Center; and

Whereas

Under his leadership the College has set forth many new initiatives to increase diversity; and

Whereas

Under his leadership the College has enjoyed greater recognition and stature throughout New York state and the Genesee region; and

Be It Resolved

That we, the members of the College Senate of SUNY College at Brockport, warmly thank Dr. John Clark for his distinguished service to this academic community and extend our very best wishes to John and his family for continued successes in the future.
