International Baccalaureate Credits

November 3, 2003

Rationale:

1. SUNY Brockport considers International Baccalaureate (IB) students favorably in the Admissions process. This curriculum-based program has proven to be a strong indicator of academic achievement.
2. IB represents a standardized international measure and would assist SUNY College at Brockport in the recruitment of international students. Courses and exams are offered in 113 countries and are considered for university admission in 102 countries.
3. SUNY Brockport currently accepts credit for standardized tests (Advanced Placement, CLEP) that measure achievement in secondary education.
4. Secondary schools, many from the Rochester area included, are increasingly adding International Baccalaureate courses to their student offerings.
5. 10 of the SUNY four-year institutions are listed on the IB website as awarding credit for IB scores. (Others may also award credit but simply not be listed on the website.)

Therefore, be it resolved:

SUNY Brockport will award six (6) credits for scores of 5 or higher on Higher Level Examinations only. No credit will be awarded for Standard Level Examinations though students may, at the discretion of the appropriate department, petition for credit-by-examination.

A maximum of 30 credits may be awarded for International Baccalaureate Examinations.

If deemed appropriate, a department can determine course equivalencies via the Notice of Award of Transfer Credit.

Exam credits may be used to fill General Education requirements (i.e., six credits in Humanities would fill the requirement for a course in the Humanities).

After these guidelines have been in effect for two years, we recommend that the grade of 5 or higher cutoff be reevaluated to determine whether accepting a grade of 4 instead of a 5 could be implemented.
