

Michael Latona Interviewed by Jonathan Goehring

Abstract filer:

Betul Duru

Document Type:

Interview

Publication Date:

3/27/2021

Abstract:

Michael Latona is working towards becoming a history teacher at a high school level at SUNY Brockport. Latona received his associates from MCC, and soon after moved to California with his friends. In California, Latona created a business in the Bitcoin industry. After five years of living in California, he decided to move back and study towards becoming a teacher. Since then, he has had first hand experience in classrooms as a substitute and a classroom observer. Latona wants to become a mentor to his students and make the classroom and the institute a better place.

Length of Interview:

28 minutes.

Repository Citation:

Latona, Michael and Goehring, Jonathan, "Deneen Griffin, Interviewed by Jonathan Goehring" (2020) Interviews With Students Past & Present. 6.