HELP WANTED

BUDGET APPROVED

Now that the budgets have been approved, the way is now clear for the operation of our student newspaper. Even though the present academic year is almost over, we intend to put forth a maximum effort so that next year we will be able to operate immediately and effectively.

Contributions are extremely necessary from the student community. We have had almost two semesters to reflect on, and view, our surroundings at Westbury College...EVERYONE should have something to speak-out on. You now have the opportunity to be heard.

DEAD-LINE DATE

All contributions (editorials, articles, etc) must be turned in to the newspaper office prior to MARCH 23, 1973.

The staff of the Catalyst have, in their efforts to establish a viable student newspaper to serve the Old Westbury community, encountered a serious roadblock. This being the "lack of sufficient workers to get the job done."

TYPIST, WRITERS, and anyone else interested in journalism, are badly needed.

It is a commonly accepted fact that a student newspaper can be the most reliable and effective means of bridging communication gaps. UNLESS there is a student-wide participation at Westbury to make it's student paper a pertinent, relevant and important mode of expressing the needs and conditions of campus life, the Catalyst is doomed to functioning as a "traditional" college newspaper.

All those who are interested in contributing to the development of the Catalyst . . . see any one of the staff members in the Student Newspaper Office; located in Bldg. 11, 1A (lower level).
