

Alpha Chi Omicron Sorority

Last Tuesday evening, November 14, 1950, Alpha Chi Omicron, Gamma Chapter, sponsored a rush party for Junior and Senior girls in the Ivy Room at the Institute.

The hostesses of the evening were the officers: Lorraine Cleary, president; Pat Rieman, Vice-president; Vilma Vogt, secretary, and Pat Spangenberg, treasurer.

Heading the rush planning committees were Pat Rieman, assisted by chairman: Jacqueline Dilger, refreshments; Maryann Guenther, decorations; and Jean Culklin, invitations.

The party was a grand success with everyone having an enjoyable time.

The sorority is planning an active social year beginning with a bowling party to be held early in December at the Harlem Bowling Alleys.

Lambda Chi Iota Initiates Seven New Members

After several days of carrying large stuffed animals, wearing name tags, and in general answering to the whims of their sorority sisters, seven senior girls were initiated into the Beta Chapter of the Lambda Chi Iota sorority. The following girls were initiated at an impressive dinner at the Kathryn Lawrence Tea Room, November 1: Lee Box, Annette Baker, Joan Harkness, Elaine Weber, Barbara Whalen, Doris Reuttiman, and "Ginger" Lerczak.

Lambda Chi is planning a junior rush party, Monday, November 20, in the Ivy Room. All pledges will be chosen by the pro-rate system.

New Members Initiated

Phi Theta Gamma has taken in 28 new members as full-fledged fraternity brothers on November 10, 1950. The following students have completed the necessary obligations before becoming "frat brothers": Edward Maroney, Larry Haberer, Gerry Stevens, Ed Mosman, Joseph Scaletta, Jacob Mulhisen, Athur Dickson, James Seitler, Kenneth Gollmann, Vincent Bagrowski, John Pastalenic, Tom Potter, Joseph Norton, Anastasios Paliokastritis, Herbert Popkey, Alfred Dalla Torre, Ward Tooker, Dick Russell, Richard Potter, Carl Mosher, Robert Jacobson, Walter Germack, Fred Ellis, Don Ellis, Dick Wenke, Charles Sciandra, Horace Sherman, Allen Smith. Also Mr. Katzman, Athletic Director, was installed as advisor, replacing Mr. Schlifke, who is now at Jamestown Community College.

Basketball

First game of season—November 30—against Buffalo State Teachers College freshman. Game to be held at 174th Armory, starting at 7 P.M. This being a preliminary game to State Teachers varsity game. This year, having only 3 or 4 tall boys, the team will be small, fast, and deceptive. The team as a whole are in fine shape. Having such holdovers as Walter Maciag, Louis Hughes, and Shelton Krieger. Along with newcomers Joe Pietras, Bill Mercer, Jack Day, Charles Kay, Charles Staten, George Hambrush, Asel Tooker, Clifford Lipsius, and Robert Klepser should prove to give this year's basketball opponents a rough time. Russ Todaro, who is out on co-op work now, will help the team tremendously when he is back in school. Let's, as a school, get out and back this year's team.

Section News

Friday, November 10, the Chemistry seniors held a party for Diz Duszynski to help celebrate his twenty-first birthday. Pat Patterson baked a scrumptious cake for the joyous occasion and Diz's frat brothers treated everyone with ice cream.

Diz's life should run smoothly now after his blowing out all the candles with one big wind, thus making his wish come true.

The boys of O-1 have discovered a unique way of celebrating birthdays, which resulted in many crimson faces.

SENT:

One bill for burned cafeteria tray and scorched ceiling.

To those who have not already heard "The Gene Krupa" of O-1; he is none other than our own Jack Zilliox. His performance at the Hallowe'en Dance brought attention to his outstanding ability.

Take notice all who need glasses—O-1 is grinding lenses. (?)

The Foods Catering class is really getting to be well known by various organizations in the city. The men attending the dinners served by The Society of Metals and American Tool Engineers are still raving about the shrimp cocktail and turkey dinner.

D*I wishes Marilyn Gerhardt and Roger Kreisher a very happy birthday.

Who is JO-JO the dog-faced boy? Ask any girl in D-I.

"O.B." has promised to obey Patti Spangenberg when she advises him to stay away from "Blind Date" dances.

When Jim Keller of O-11 was asked, "before your eyes do you see spots?" He replied, "no; just Dot and little Dots".

Formal Invitation

The Food department seniors have extended an invitation to the juniors of their department to be their guests at the second annual Christmas party to be held on Monday, December 18th, in the school cafeteria. A dinner will be served and an evening of fun will follow. Among the distinguished guests invited are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dry and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Spring.

This past month the food seniors have had the honor of being host to the Health Inspectors of the Sanitation Department. The visit consisted of a brief history of our school and a tour of the Foods Department, followed by a light lunch. They were greatly impressed with the school and its standards.

Good News

Student Council has again tried to serve the needs of all Institute Students. The Council has granted additional funds to the Library staff to make possible the extension of its hours of service. Beginning Monday, November 20th, the Library will open at 7:45 A.M. and stay open until 5:30 P.M. It will be open every Monday evening from 7:00 P.M. to 9:30 P.M. and one other evening during the week from 7:00 P.M. to 9:30 P.M. Watch the bulletin boards and the Library door for announcement each week of the other night. They will be varied to give everyone a chance to use the Library at least one night a week. Students needing access to library resources and a quiet spot in which to study before and after school will appreciate the new hours.

Swimming Club

Do you enjoy a refreshing swim coupled with hilarious shenanigans? Then come to the swimming club swim sessions every Wednesday evening at the Delaware "Y" from 6:45 to 8:00 P.M. There you will meet the newly-elected officers for the year 1950-51. They are: President, Gene Cramer; Vice-President, Bob Jolly; Secretary, Sonia Hovey; Treasurer, John Hynd, and Public Relations, Pat Sullivan.

A swimmerful time is guaranteed to all who come by the B.S.T.I mermaids and mermen.

On Wednesday, November 29, the Seniors of this same section, will prepare a banquet under the management of Raymond J. Pajack, for the Industrial Teacher Training Division, who is holding a graduation dinner and program at the Institute.
