The SUNY Office of Library and Information Services has a new System Librarian/Database Administrator. Mr. Joseph Thornton began work at OLIS November 4, 2002.

Joe arrives with extensive experience involving library automation at academic libraries. Most recently from Skidmore College, he also had tenures at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute and The Sage Colleges. At RPI, Joe was involved in creating a locally developed library management system (InfoTrax). At Skidmore he had responsibilities for maintaining the library's Endeavor system. Joe also has experience with SIRSI, III and Dynix. He has relevant programming experience (C, Perl and Oracle/SQL among other programming languages).

Joe is working with contacts at Oswego and ITEC on tasks related to ALEPH system administration. He is also working with ITEC and Ex Libris on projects involving the automation of various ALEPH implementation and configuration processes.

Welcome Joe!
