CSI Challenge Coming to Stony Brook

Save The Dates! Sunday, June 3, 2012 and Monday, June 4, 2012

Sponsored by the School of Professional Development, on Monday, June 4th, hundreds of high school students will compete in the 12th Annual CSI Challenge. The Crime Scene Investigation Challenge (CSI Challenge) is a hands-on educational opportunity for high school students to conduct a "real" criminal investigation, allowing them to showcase their knowledge of forensic science, criminal investigation, and the law. And it's FUN! Stony Brook faculty, students and staff are encouraged to volunteer to help set-up and run the event. Volunteers are needed Sunday, June 3rd for the set-up, including creating 40 forensically identical crime scenes. Volunteers are needed on Monday, June 4th to help run the event and breakdown the competition site. Come help us put on a great educational event! Your service will make a difference. To volunteer email: amy.margolies@stonybrook.edu

Phi Delta Kappa General Membership Meeting
