

The Lady Volunteers Sing About Colleen

(Tune is the same as "Oh Christmas Tree")

By: John Reheuser

We're volunteers, we're volunteers,

We are at your beck and call.

We are not dressed in stoles of mink,

We proudly wear our coats of pink.

We're volunteers, we're volunteers,

And we are glad to help you.

Oh, Colleen is our director, and

She is just and able.

She shows us how to do our work,

Those vital tasks we never shirk,

Oh, Colleen is our director and,

We are proud to serve her!

Oh, Colleen does our Christmas trees,

Her displays are a treasure,

She likes to hang up shiny things,

Like angels and the Magi Kings,

Oh, Colleen does our Christmas trees,

And she does it with great pleasure!
