

DANCE of the MADMAN

Decisions kill; chief plays chess on dance floor, Greg Heines

Little Johnny dying in the coup, let the heard; in the birds will flock,

One more time around, it's just a game

Jubilee

Nathan Cadaret

falling sky
trees reach for a breath of sweetness roots stretch and retract like an orgasmic twitch a summoning of life
a jubilee of existence eternal beginnings

Too often teenagers make-believe responsibility and take jobs
To make money and buy their real drugs.
