take me back to those old days a thous-and years a - go, In take me back to old New-York a thous-and years a - go, When take me back to Bos - ton Town a thous-and years a - go, Where take me back to old New-port a thous-and years a - go, Where spite of all their crook - ed ways, a thous-and years a - go. Oh Ted - dy ruled and boomed the stork, a thous-and years a - go. Oh beans were fresh and bread was brown, a thous-and years a - go. I no - bod - y was ev - er short, a thous-and years a - go. I give me back Man - hat - tan fair, oh set me down most an - y - where, and give me back the days so glad when Fads and Fan - cies could be had at want to read those mag - a - zines that tell us how the big sar - dines made want to watch the dail - y lives of those who, when the time ar - rives, get fill my lungs with Sub - way air; A thous - and years a - go. I fif - teen hun - dred plunks per Fad; A thous - and years a - go. I gold with wa - tered Ker - o - senes; A thous - and years a - go. I mar - ried to their neigh - bor's wives; A thous - and years a - go. I want to go - home now, in - deed I do;

REFRAIN.

I'm anx-ious to roam now a - way from you. You're aw-ful-ly kind folks, but yet 'tis true, I want to go home now, in - deed I do.

CHORUS.

We want to go home now, in - deed we do; We're anx-ious to roam now a - way from you. You're
