FACULTY FACTS AND STAFF STUFF

for week of May 17 - 23

President Tyrrell will be in Denver on Friday and Saturday to attend a Technical Education Conference of the Western Interstate Commission for Higher Education. Purpose of the conference is to discuss methods of alleviating the growing shortage of trained technicians in the West.

Notice has been received from New York State Employees' Retirement System that registration will be open from now until the end of 1965 to change one's retirement plan from age 60 to 55 plan, which has many advantages. Anyone wishing to elect the 55-year plan should go to the office of the Civil Service Commission in the county building and fill out the necessary forms.

Marvin Behr wishes to thank all who were so thoughtful and kind in connection with his father's death last week.

Roxie Stitzer passes along the gratitude of the students and faculty of the Dental Hygiene department for those who were patients during the New York State Dental Hygiene Practical examination last week. She points out that 15 of the 22 patients were from the campus.

Speaking engagements:

Dr. Porter Swift at the combined sex education program of the Methodist and Episcopal Churches of Chenango Bridge, "Fit to be Tied," last Sunday.

Harold Hickey at the meeting of the American Association of University Women at the Vestal Hills Country Club on Monday evening, "A New Look at Latin America."

Marvin Behr at the Nimmonsburg Rotary Club on Friday at the Town & Country Restaurant, "A New Look at Broome Tech."

Pete Everett reminds us that this is the final week of the evening term and that courses will be offered this summer in the evening in Accounting II, Business Math, Business Law I.

BUZZING WITH THE HORNET

Many of you people must have noticed it, too, but George Dunham, the head man at WNBC radio and TV, was moved to write a letter about the way The Evening Press described President Tyrrell's new duties as president of the Opportunities for Broome, Inc.

The letter:

The Evening Press for Tuesday, April 13, says that you are heading "the first formal effort in county history to eliminate all poor people."

I am shocked to think that a man of your sensibilities would lend himself to so drastic and heartless a method of dealing with the problem of poverty.

Warren Hoyt had this observation about the new name for the Broome Tech Business Club, which is now the College Administrative Management Society Chapter--Broome Technical Community College:

"That sounds more like the whole book than just a chapter."

On a more serious note, the Empire State Association of the Blind is sponsoring a concert of blind singers on June 7 at the Arlington Hotel. Tickets can be obtained from Dorothy Turner for $2 each, and these blind artists are reputed to be excellent performers, as their program ranges from the classics to the most modern compositions.
