NOTES:

Amendments to Standing Rules

Amendment 1: Presidential Search

Under Article Two (Presidential Searches), Section B (Selection Procedures) to be amended as follows:

1. Representatives from ~~the three (3) schools~~ each School of the College by election by the Faculty of the respective schools.

The following Article was added to the Standing Rules by action of the College Senate on April 5, 2010. After discussion with members of Academic Affairs, it was clear that one correction is warranted. The new interim Business Unit has an Acting Dean in the person of Vice Provost Michael Fox, so there is no need for additional clarification.

Amendment 2: The Department of Business Administration and Economics as a School.

As the Department currently stands alone without belonging to a School, but is currently planned to be one, it was felt that this change was best reflected in a new Article in the Standing Rules rather than an amendment to the Bylaws. Add a new Article Three (renumbering thereafter):

Article Three: Interim Representation during Transition to a School of Business
When interpreting the Bylaws of the Faculty of the State University of New York College at Brockport or the Standing Rules of the College Senate, the Department of Business Administration and Economics shall be considered a School of the College and its chairperson the Dean of said school.
