2 I'm Saving Up The Means To Get To New Orleans

Words by HOWARD JOHNSON

Music by HARRY DE COSTA

Allegro moderato

1. I've been a - round your town and seen the sights, But now I'm through, — I'm tell-ing
 2. Now you can have your great big nor-thern town, Your ci - ty ways, — And problem

Till ready

you, — That I've made up my mind to stay home nights, There's lots to do, — I mean it plays, — They're just a bunch of wor - ries, cares and frowns, In cab-ar - ets — The nights are too, — Be-cause my old friend bank-roll was get-ting thin-ner, and be-fore it got too days, — I'd rath-er be in Dix - ie, where I can rough it in the good old coun-try late, — I hired a fur-nished room, Good - bye to gloom, and now I'm migh-ty glad to state:

 style, — And when I get back there, I'll breathe that air, and change my wrin-les to a smile.

CHORUS

"I'm sav-ing up the means, to get to New Or - leans, I'll buy a trunk and pack it,

p-f

leave this rack-et, I'll be hap-py when I'm bound Back to those child-hood scenes and moth-er's home-made beans, I'm thirs-ty, Gee-whiz! I want a sil-ver fizz, like they make in my home town. Down there in New Or - leans, I'll wear my old blue jeans, I'll find the girl I left behind me in her teens, I know a train that goes a mile a min-ute, You bet your life I'm goin' to be right in it, On my way back home to New Or - leans." "I'm sav-ing leans?"

Big Innovation in Popular Sheet Music

HERE is the greatest step forward in the history of popular sheet music since the advent of the giant printing press.

Entire song in sight
NO LEAVES to turn or lose

Just think! You can play and sing the entire song from beginning to end without turning a page. Every note is clearly before your eyes—large and distinct. No embarrassing pauses while pianist struggles with loose or missing leaves—or, as very often happens, comes to a dead stop while some kind friend picks the loose sheet from the floor. A blessing which every player—every singer—will welcome.

This Feist-conceived idea we gladly give to the public

It is only another link in that ever-growing chain of evidence which proves that in the music world "you can't go wrong with any 'Feist' song."

Here are the two newest songs published in the "easy-to-read" form. No extra charge for this, the greatest innovation in Popular Sheet Music.

"SWEET CIDER TIME WHEN YOU WERE MINE"

I'll al-ways re-mem-ber that gold-en No-ven-ber, Sweet ci-der time, when you were mine!

Here is a "bird's-eye" view of the latest hit by the writers of "Tulip and Rose," and "Norway." A feast of memories! A flood of melody! A hit on a thousand vaudeville stages. Words by Joe McCarthy; music by Percy Wenrich. Sung by Walter Van Brunt, the Edison Star

"SIAM"

Si-am, I'm so lonesome where I am... You know who's waiting for you, when you come from Si-am, Your O-mar Khayam.

A novelty ballad. Sweetly swelling, voluptuous cadences charm the ear as Omar Khayam entreats Siam to come to her Persian Garden, Emma Carus' great hit! Words by Howard Johnson, music by Fred Fischer.

ON SALE TODAY at every Music Store, and at any Woolworth, Kresge, Kress or McCrory Store

Other Popular "FEIST" Songs now published in the new form:—
