

April 23, 2014

Spring Photos

In this issue's photo gallery, standout achievements in research and other areas of academic endeavor take the fore, Quest showcases student scholarship, the spring play unveils a lovable fiend, a reaccrediting team arrives for the School of Education and alumni come back to give back. If you would like to submit photos of timely activities for future issues, email pictures with a brief caption to proffice@oswego.edu.

Tobacco Free 2015 campaign launches

President Deborah F. Stanley announced on Tuesday, Earth Day, that SUNY Oswego will become a smoke-free and tobacco-free college on Jan. 1. Read more >

Officer receives SUNY Chancellor's Award

Jamie Enwright's more than two decades of service to the college as a member of Oswego's University Police staff has been recognized with a SUNY Chancellor's Award for Excellence in Classified Service. Read more >

Dean of liberal arts and sciences appointed

Dr. Adrienne McCormick will become dean of the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences at SUNY Oswego on July 11. Read more >

Student scholar earns Fulbright award to India

A profound experience while studying abroad and a world of determination have led to Julie Schofield becoming Oswego's first student Fulbright scholar in more than a decade. Read more >

Princeton Review salutes Oswego as 'green college'

In time for Earth Day, the Princeton Review recognized SUNY Oswego as one of the 332 most environmentally responsible colleges in North America. Read more >

People in Action

In this issue, read about film festival winners, medal recipients for research and sponsored programs, students teaching in France, a new visiting scholar from China, and faculty publishing, presenting and winning honors. Read more >

Moody honored for pop-culture research

Communication studies faculty member David Moody has received a national award for his work on African-American visual popular culture. Read more >

Task force addresses climate of diversity

Jerald Woolfolk, vice president of student affairs and enrollment management, has launched a campuswide task force to improve the atmosphere and to educate about issues of diversity.

Read more >

Spotlight

Meet Laurie Seguin, who tried on a variety of jobs before finding her niche as secretary in mathematics nearly 20 years ago — in this issue's Spotlight.

Announcements

- Revival of monster musical comedy opens this week
- Opera luminary, alumnus Cokorinos to perform here
- Interactive map to help visitors explore Rice Creek
- Oswego County College Fair, a first, set for April 28
- State Singers, choir offer vocal feast in free concert
- University Police conducts 'Buckle-Up' patrols
- Police Report

Calendar Highlights

Wednesday, April 23

- Mexican movie: "Rabbit on the Moon"

Thursday, April 24

- Webcast talk: "How Women Can Embrace Leadership"
- Hunger Banquet

Friday, April 25

- Symposium: "Astrophysics for the New Century" begins
- Indie concert: Arms & Sleepers, American Royalty and Gianni Paci
- Talk: "Astrobiology and Sustainability"
- Theatre performance: "Young Frankenstein" opens

Saturday, April 26

- Art exhibit opening
- Spring Concert: Say Anything, Motion City Soundtrack and We the Kings

Sunday, April 27

- Concert: State Singers and College Choir
- Rice Creek Reflection: "The Flora of Oswego"

Monday, April 28

- General faculty meeting
- College Fair
- Concert: Festival Chorus

Wednesday, April 30

- Concert: Bass-baritone Philip Cokorinos

Friday, May 2

- Art exhibition opening

Wednesday, May 7

- Concert: Oswego Jazz Project with Charles Pillow

For details, see SUNY Oswego Events.

Resources

Research News
Artswego
Athletics
Student Blogs
Recent Milestones
Faculty Assembly
Employment Opportunities
Campus Update Archives
SUNY Oswego Home Page

Action Items

Submit news
RSS news feeds
Subscribe

Follow SUNY Oswego

