

THE CONSTITUTION OF THE STONY BROOK WOMEN'S SOCCER CLUB

We serve to organize both recreational and competitive soccer within the campus community. Through the recreational aspect of our club, we provide all Stony Brook students the opportunity to play soccer in a friendly environment by setting up weekly pick-up games. These games allow fellow soccer enthusiasts the chance to meet and develop friendships, as well as providing exercise for all participants. For the women who want to go beyond just weekly pick-up games and participate in a competitive environment, we will provide them with that opportunity, which would otherwise be unavailable to the vast majority of female soccer players. We have organized a woman's team that practices every week and will compete with other collegiate teams.
