Resolution #5, 1978-79
Meeting date: 11/6/78

Master of Professional Studies: Reading Teacher

At the April 3, 1978 meeting of the Faculty Senate, the Senate approved a C.B.T.E. program leading to Provisional Certification as a Reading Teacher and also to a degree of Master of Science in Education: Reading. In line with current State and SUNY policy, the Committee recommends that there be added to this program the indication that, on advisement by the Department of Curriculum and Instruction, the program may also lead to a degree of Master of Professional Studies: Reading Teacher.

(This program has already been accepted in its present form by both the College and Albany.)

October 25, 1978

To: Dr. Fred Burselbach, Chairperson
Graduate Policies Committee of the Faculty Senate

From: Dr. Robert B. Ribble, Chairperson
Department of Curriculum and Instruction

Re: Reading Teacher Certification Program

The Department of Curriculum and Instruction is requesting an addition to the Competency Based Education Program leading to Provisional Certification as a Reading Teacher which was approved by the Faculty Senate April 1978.

The current program leads to the degree of Master of Science in Education: Reading Teacher. The requested change would include as an alternative the degree of Master of Professional Studies: Reading Teacher. Since the degree of Master of Professional Studies will be an alternative degree, the explanation is given in Section A-1-Degree Clarification (see attached).

The program has been approved by the President's Advisory Council and by President Brown. Reviewers in Albany have tentatively approved the program and made one recommendation which was to include the degree of Master of Professional Studies which presently does exist at Brockport. The recommendation of SUNY Central Office was made to enable persons currently holding a SUNY Master of Science in Education to not only become certified as a Reading Teacher but also earn a second Master's Degree. With the new certification this situation would not be unusual. This addition would offer greater flexibility for students seeking certification as a Reading Teacher.

Section A-1 Degree Clarification

The Reading Teacher Certification has only existed since September 1977. Some individuals seeking certification as a Reading Teacher may already hold a Master of Science in Education Degree. In such cases a second Master's Degree, Master of Professional Studies: Reading Teacher, will be awarded upon completion of the program as described in this document.

Each time a reference is made to the degree Master of Science in Education: Reading Teacher it also applies to the degree Master of Professional Studies: Reading Teacher.
