Julia's Garden.

Julia has a garden fair
At the edge o' town,
Marigolds and roses rare,
Sweet to bind in Julia's hair,
And upon her gown.

Four-o'-clocks and touch-me-not,
Pride-o' - princes' feather,
Daisies and forget-me-not,
Wistful little bergamot,
Growing all together.

Sunday Julia walked with me
When the sun was down;
Very sweet and fair was she,
Heaven must have envied me
At the edge o' town.

What saw I of flowers fair
Or cared that I should see?
No flower in all the world so rare,
As that sweet one beside me there,
When Julia walked with me.

Julia has a garden fair
At the edge o' town.
Would you see the flowers rare?
Walk not then with Julia there,
When the sun is down.
